For Ages 9 to 12

The Charmed Children of Rookskill Castle, by Janet Fox (Viking Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "This story has just the right combination of atmosphere, creepiness, and darkness, with a bit of historical fiction thrown in. In wartime 1940, a group of children from London are sent to a castle in Scotland. Purportedly, this castle now houses an academy. The headmistress, referred to as 'The Lady,' is a mystery. What is her real purpose? And why do people keep mysteriously appearing and disappearing? I'm so excited to handsell this book!" —Valerie Welbourn, Novels & Novelties Bookstore, Hendersonville, NC

For Teen Readers

Kill the Boy Band, by Goldy Moldavsky (Point, $17.99) "Reading Moldavsky's debut is like reliving my first viewing of the movie Heathers, and wanting to delve deeper and deeper into the craziness that those girls were getting themselves into. The world of fandom is a fascinating and terrifying place when watched from the outside, and watching someone wake up from living in that dream—or nightmare—is told here with an obvious love for the drama and flair of an '80s cult film. I loved this book and cannot wait for more from Moldavsky." —Kari Meutsch, Phoenix Books, Essex Junction, VT
