For Middle Grade Readers

Hour of the Bees, by Lindsay Eager (Candlewick Press, $16.99) "Carolina is not happy about spending the summer before junior high with a grandfather she has never met, helping her parents move him into a home for people with dementia. But as the summer drags on, Grandpa Serge's fanciful stories of the past grab hold of Carolina and she finds herself questioning what is real and what is true, and how those two things are not always the same. A beautifully written, magical book." —Drew Sieplinga, Wild Rumpus, Minneapolis, MN

For Teen Readers

The End of Fun, by Sean McGinty (Disney Hyperion, $17.99) "Put M.T. Anderson, Cory Doctorow, Andrew Smith, and Hunter S. Thompson in a blender and you will get Sean McGinty's brilliantly funny debut. It is a coming-of-age novel like no other. McGinty has expertly crafted what is sure to become a cult classic for the tech generation." —Caitlin Baker, University Book Store, Seattle, WA
