Another Indie Favorite

The Transit of Venus, by Shirley Hazzard (Penguin Books, $16)

Originally published in hardcover in 1980 "WWII has just ended when two Australian sisters, Grace, whose nature is described by her name, and Caro, more angular in terms of beauty and character, encounter the Englishmen who will subsume their lives. The result is not only a rapturous love story, but a novel of ideas as adept at skewering society as people, as astute about global conflict as about love. The writing, at once luminous and precise, is heart-stopping and hair-raising, the sweep of story hugely engrossing, the result brilliant." —Betsy Burton, The King's English Bookshop, Salt Lake City, UT
