Other Indie Favorites

Dinner With Edward: A Story of an Unexpected Friendship, by Isabel Vincent (Algonquin Books, $23.95) "Dinner With Edward is the charming story of the author's friendship with her friend's widower father. Vincent does a wonderful job evoking the sensuous details of the meals they shared, but this is more than just a foodie memoir: it is an exploration of the nature of friendship, aging, loss, and how we define our identities as the world changes around us. Despite the sadness of some of its topics, Dinner With Edward is ultimately a warm, feel-good story." —Carol Schneck Varner, Schuler Books & Music, Okemos, MI

The Curious Charms of Arthur Pepper: A Novel, by Phaedra Patrick (MIRA, $24.99) "Arthur Pepper has finally gotten around to cleaning out his deceased wife's clothes when he comes across her charm bracelet. He doesn't remember seeing it before, and the charms pique his curiosity about the life his wife led before they met. Thus begins an adventure that will have Arthur learning to embrace life more fully and becoming more present in the lives of those he cares about. Grab a seat and get lost in this charming read with characters you will cheer on, laugh with, and perhaps shed a tear for." —Lisa Fabiano, An Unlikely Story, Plainville, MA
