Another Indie Favorite

How to Start a Fire: A Novel, by Lisa Lutz (Mariner Books, $14.95) "How to Start a Fire integrates Lutz's trademark humor, quippy dialog, and quirky characters with a story of three college friends who meet in Santa Cruz in 1993. Readers will fall in love with these three women as they experience failed marriages, career decisions, and other significant life events. Those who are new to Lutz will gobble up this standalone entry and then race to their local bookstores to begin reading about the Spellman family in her earlier bestselling series." —Terry Gilman, Mysterious Galaxy, San Diego, CA
