For Teen Readers

If I Was Your Girl, by Meredith Russo (Flatiron Books, $17.99) "Amanda Hardy is starting a new life in a new town and a new school—one where no one ever knew her as Andrew Hardy. She has survived a suicide attempt, lifelong bullying from peers, and her father's denial of who she really is. Now, she finds herself in the life she's always imagined—as a normal teenage girl with girlfriends and even a boyfriend—but she still finds herself living in fear of her past. This novel about a transgender woman, written by a transgender woman, is an important and timely story." —Sandy Scott, The Galaxy Bookshop, Hardwick, VT
