Other Indie Favorites

Brighton: A Novel, by Michael Harvey (Ecco, $27.99) "Gritty, thrilling, and full of twists, Harvey's first novel to be set in his hometown of Boston is cause for celebration. Its namesake neighborhood is as richly textured as the characters in this deeply moving crime story about two friends haunted by their shared past of violence. While it will certainly appeal to fans of Dennis Lehane's Mystic River, Brighton sings with a fresh Bostonian voice that is all its own." —Thomas Wickersham, Brookline Booksmith, Brookline, MA

My Last Continent: A Novel, by Midge Raymond (Scribner, $26) "Suspense and love intertwine against the backdrop of Antarctica in this wonderful debut. Deb is a researcher devoting her life to the magnificent penguins that populate this remote corner of the world, where the ice-choked waters set the stage for the tragic collision of a cruise liner and a mountainous iceberg. When Deb discovers the man she loves is aboard the doomed ship, the poles of her world shift, as she must now focus on rescuing the one person who has saved her from her self-inflicted solitude. Raymond does a masterful job building the tension while the dramas of the past and present unfold." —Luisa Smith, Book Passage, Corte Madera, CA
