When Friendship Followed Me Home, by Paul Griffin (Dial Books for Young Readers, $16.99)

"When outsider Ben Coffin discovers Flip, an abandoned dog, and finds a friend in Halley, the librarian's daughter, he finally begins to feel like he belongs in his own life. When tragedy strikes and Ben's life threatens to fall apart, Flip proves that friendship—and love—can take many forms. This book can only be described as tail-thumping, dog-kisses-all-over-your-face good!"—Clara Martin, Lemuria Bookstore, Jackson, MS

For Teen Readers

Julia Vanishes, by Catherine Egan (Knopf Books for Young Readers, $17.99)

"Julia lives in Spira City, where magic and even folklore are punishable by death, and she loves her edgy life as a thief and a spy. Her mother was a witch, drowned in the river as part of the frequent Cleansing ceremonies, so Julia stays away from magic. Except she does have a special skill that comes in handy while thieving: Julia can make herself almost unseen. This is the first book in a new trilogy and I look forward to more of Julia's adventures as this epic story continues."—Clare Doornbos, DIESEL: A Bookstore, Larkspur, CA
