The Crimson Skew, by S.E. Grove (Viking Books for Young Readers, $17.99) “The Crimson Skew is the wonderfully thrilling conclusion to The Mapmakers Trilogy. The story, which makes good on the promises made in The Glass Sentence and furthered in The Golden Specific, brings Sophia and Theo together again after a long time apart. Whether you have followed the entirety of the series or are just jumping in, this adventure is marvelous and the ending is both surprising and satisfying.”

For Teen Readers

The Killer in Me, by Margot Harrison (Disney-Hyperion, $17.99) “Nina cannot sleep at night, because every time she closes her eyes she sees inside the mind of a killer. She knows his plans and his next victims. As Nina tries to stop the murders from happening, she makes a shocking discovery that will ultimately make her choose between her conscience and love. This book is a fantastic read—I was hooked from the first page and could not stop reading until I was done. Don't miss this one!” —Lisa Nehs, Books & Company, Oconomowoc, WI
