For Ages 9 to 12

The Nocturnals: The Mysterious Abductions, by Tracey Hecht, Kate Liebman (Illus.) (Fabled Films Press, $15.99) "A charming, funny, and intriguing title for middle grade readers, produced with wonderfully quirky color art throughout, The Nocturnals tells the story of night-active animals who discover that their kind are suddenly going missing. The characters—including a Pepé Le Pew-like sugar glider, a sweetly self-effacing pangolin, and a beautiful, wise, soft-spoken fox—work together to solve the mysterious disappearances. Readers are left wanting more stories about these unique characters and, luckily, there are more in the works!" —Francine Lucidon, The Voracious Reader, Larchmont, NY

For Teen Readers

How to Hang a Witch, by Adriana Mather (Knopf Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "Mather has perfectly captured the spirit and mystery that surrounds the site of the infamous Salem witch trials. Surreal and edgy, this is part ghost story, part historical fiction, and completely gripping. Is Samantha really seeing ghosts? Will she be able to let herself fall for the boy who wants her? Can she break the family curse before she loses her dad forever?" —Clarissa Murphy, Brookline Booksmith, Brookline, MA
