Another Indie Favorite

The Tsar of Love and Techno: Stories, by Anthony Marra (Hogarth, $16) "A Constellation of Vital Phenomena is one of my favorite novels of the last several years, and now Marra follows that up with a dazzling set of linked stories set in Russia, Chechnya, and Siberia over a period spanning from the Russian Revolution to the modern day and beyond. As with his debut novel, what I love are the characters that he makes readers care so deeply about, as well as the fact that I constantly found myself wanting to know more about their lives and the history of their countries. Get on the Marra train now because one thing is certain: he is one of our brightest young talents writing today." —Cody Morrison, Square Books, Oxford, MS
