For Ages 9 to 12

Wishing Day, by Lauren Myracle (Katherine Tegen Books, $16.99) "Do wishes come true? Natasha is about to find out when she makes three wishes: one for her first kiss, one for her mother to be alive, and one for her to be 'somebody's favorite.' Natasha is the sensible sister, while Darya is the pretty sister and Ana is the goofy, silly, creative sister. Since her mother disappeared and her father remains buried in grief, Natasha must keep the family together. Wishing Day explores the themes of mental illness, homelessness, and family loss in a coming-of-age story sprinkled with magic." —Karen Briggs, Great Northern Books & Hobbies, Oscoda, MI

For Teen Readers: Revisit & Rediscover Feed, by M.T. Anderson (Candlewick Press, $8.99)

Originally published in 2002 "Feed is dystopian science fiction at its best! In this tale set in a near future of environmental disasters and corporate power, Titus and his friends are never alone and almost everyone has access to everything at the blink of an eye via 'feeds' linked directly to the brain. Nothing can go wrong with this scenario, right? Enter a crazy computer hacker and chaos ensues! This is a fascinating look at how media manipulates and exploits us all!" —Rene Kirkpatrick, Eagle Harbor Book Company, Bainbridge Island, WA
