For Ages 9 to 12

What Elephants Know: A Novel, by Eric Dinerstein (Disney-Hyperion, $16.99) "My mother is an elephant and my father is an old man with one arm." So begins this absolute gem of a book set in Nepal. It is a masterfully written, poignant story of an orphan boy, Nandu, who finds home and family with the head of an elephant stable. When the king orders the stable to be closed, Nandu must find a way to save it. This is a brilliant and unforgettable story filled with action and universal truths."
—Vicky Titcomb, Titcomb's Bookshop, East Sandwich, MA

For Teen Readers

The Star-Touched Queen, by Roshani Chokshi (St. Martin's Griffin, $18.99) "A princess cursed with a horoscope that promises a marriage of Death and Destruction becomes an empowered queen of the Otherworld in Chokshi's darkly romantic debut, inspired by Indian and Greek mythology. Richly imaginative, lyrical, sensuous, and lush, The Star-Touched Queen is a spellbinding tale of love, betrayal, and redemption — perfect for fans of Rosamund Hodge, Laini Taylor, and Bree Despain." —Alyssa Raymond, Boulder Book Store, Boulder, CO
