Another Indie Favorite

Riverine: A Memoir From Anywhere But Here, by Angela Palm (Graywolf Press, $16)

"Haunting and surprising yet immediately relatable, Palm's striking memoir sinks its roots deep into readers and holds fast. Everything ordinary, Palm reveals, is extraordinary—tragic, profound, amusing, brutal—when examined up close. In reflecting on her own formative years, growing up 'between points on the map' in small-town Indiana, Palm paints a measured, unforgettable portrait of the forces that break us free of our origins and those that inevitably call us back." —Sam Kaas, Village Books, Bellingham, WA
