The Gentleman: A Novel, by Forrest Leo (Penguin Press, 9780399562631, $26) "Fast-paced, funny, and extremely enjoyable, The Gentleman has fantastic elements and intriguing characters tied together with smart dialogue and timing reminiscent of a Baz Luhrman film. Badly behaved Victorian ladies, indolent poets, an exasperated editor, intrepid British adventurers, steampunk inventors, omniscient butlers, a genteel Devil, and a number of cunning plans combine to make this debut novel exciting and amusing." —Jennifer Richter, Inkwood Books, Haddonfield, NJ

A House Without Windows: A Novel, by Nadia Hashimi (William Morrow, 9780062449689, $26.99) "Hashimi sets her layered and suspenseful novel at the crossroads of tradition and modernity in present-day Afghanistan. Her nuanced and well-paced tale tells the story of Zeba, who is accused of murdering her husband. In the Chil Mahtab prison, where Zeba awaits her trial and sentencing, she comes to know a colorful cast of female inmates, many of whom are ordinary women who have been snared in various traps of family honor and have been cast away by their families and by society. This is a compassionately written and moving page-turner." —Marya Johnston, Out West Books, Grand Junction, CO

The Gates of Evangeline: A Novel, by Hester Young (G.P. Putnam's Sons, 9780425283172, $16) "Charlie Cates recently lost her young son and the job that she worked so hard for is probably going to be eliminated. When Charlie is offered a chance to write about the Deveau family and their child who went missing over 30 years ago, she jumps at the chance. What she hasn't told anybody is that she has been seeing visions of children in trouble and is currently experiencing one of a young boy in a rowboat in a Louisiana swamp who she suspects is the missing Deveau child. A wonderful puzzle with a Southern Gothic feel, this is a definite must-read!"—Janice Hunsche, Kaleidosaurus Books, Metamora, IN
