Another Indie Favorite

Pancakes in Paris: Living the American Dream in France, by Craig Carlson (Sourcebooks, $15.99) "Pancakes and Paris make for a winning combination in this charming memoir. Readers will cheer for Carlson as he follows his dream of opening a restaurant in another country. He faces many challenges, but perseveres until he reaches his goal. Thanks to Carlson it is now possible to get hearty pancakes and other treats at Breakfast in America, the first American-style diner in Paris. This is a perfect read for armchair travelers or for Francophiles planning their next trip to the City of Light." —Elizabeth Merritt, Titcomb's Bookshop, East Sandwich, MA
