Other Indie Favorites

Wonder Women: 25 Innovators, Inventors, and Trailblazers Who Changed History, by Sam Maggs, Sophia Foster-Dimino (Illus.) (Quirk Books, $16.99) "In this delightful book, Maggs introduces readers to amazing women who changed history through their creativity, inventions, and remarkable paths of service in areas overwhelmed by men. From Huang Daopo, Chinese textile pioneer, to Brita Tott, Danish spy and forger, and from Elizabeth and Emily Blackwell, American doctors and hospital administrators, to Bessie Coleman, African-American aviatrix, the intelligence and stamina of these women is amazing." —Sally Van Wert, MacDonald Book Shop, Estes Park, CO

The Fall Guy: A Novel, by James Lasdun (W.W. Norton & Company, $25.95) "The Fall Guy introduces its three main characters as they leave the hustle and bustle of New York City for a summer sojourn upstate. Things take a Lynchian turn when Charlie and Chloe's guest, Matthew, notices what appears to be duplicitous behavior within and outside their home. Lasdun does an incredible job of ratcheting up the suspense, earning the reader's trust with his spare, pitch-perfect language, and upending expectations on every page. Morally complex characters, a sly and inventive take on the guilt and shame of modern-day banking, and prose as sensuous as some of the novel's sexiest scenes are just a few of the many rewards of Lasdun's latest, and greatest, novel." —John Francisconi, Bank Square Books, Mystic, CT
