Other Indie Favorites

The German Girl: A Novel, by Armando Lucas Correa (Atria Books, $26.99) "On May 13, 1939, the S.S. St. Louis set sail from Germany to Cuba with many Jewish passengers fleeing Hitler. Despite all best efforts, they were turned away from Cuba, the U.S., and Canada, forcing the ship to return to Europe, where many of the passengers would die in Hitler's death camps. Correa puts a human face on this shameful episode. Hannah Rosenthal, the daughter of wealthy aristocrats, was 12 when she boarded the St. Louis. Seven decades later, Anna Rosen receives a package from an unknown relative in Cuba that inspires her and her mother to travel to Cuba to learn the truth about their family's mysterious and tragic past. A masterful debut!" —Deon Stonehouse, Sunriver Books & Music, Sunriver, OR

Orphans of the Carnival: A Novel, by Carol Birch (Doubleday, $27.95) "Orphans of the Carnival is the story of a time when the oddities of nature could be a lucrative path to fame and fortune. Although heartbreaking, it is the wonderful journey of a talented woman who, in spite of being alternately vilified and celebrated just wants a normal life. Filled with many unforgettable characters and amazing writing, this is a book that will stay with readers for a long time." —Mary McBride, Rainy Day Books, Fairway, KS
