Furthermore, by Tahereh Mafi (Dutton Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "Welcome to Ferenwood, where the flowers are edible, colors are magic, and magic is currency. It is the home of Alice, who, in a world of beauty and magic, struggles with poverty, a missing father, and the fact that she alone in the entire village has almost no color. As her future seems empty, Alice grabs the chance for adventure and joins her nemesis, Oliver, in a bid to rescue her father from the dangerous land of Furthermore, but she finds far more adventure than she bargained for. I cannot recommend this book highly enough!" —Kelly Morton, Joseph-Beth Booksellers, Cincinnati, OH

For Teen Readers

Wrecked: A Novel, by Maria Padian (Algonquin Young Readers, $17.95) "Conundrum: The name of the campus house where Haley's freshman roommate claims to have been raped, and the exact position Haley is put in when she finds herself drawn into the campus investigation. At the same time, Haley is growing closer to Richard, a housemate of the accused and a boy who annoys her, excites her, makes her furious, and makes her laugh. Haley and Richard find themselves on opposite sides of somebody else's war, struggling and scrambling to discern just who is telling the truth about what really happened. Timely, poignant, and thought-provoking. Wrecked should be required reading for every high-school senior." —Angie Tally, The Country Bookshop, Southern Pines, NC
