Return to the Secret Garden, by Holly Webb (Sourcebooks Jabberwocky, $16.99) "What a joy to return to the scene of a beloved children's classic. In the dark days leading up to World War II, the orphans of the Craven Home are evacuated to Misselthwaite Manor. It is there that sad and lonely Emmie Hatton finds some happiness. The kindly gardener and loving owners of the manor offer Emmie refuge for her body and soul. The garden may no longer be secret, but it still possesses magic. Return to the Secret Garden and enjoy the wonder of childhood and the magic of friendship in this sequel that is sure to warm the hearts of young readers everywhere." —Pamela Klinger-Horn, Excelsior Bay Books, Excelsior, MN

For Teen Readers

Trouble Makes a Comeback, by Stephanie Tromly (Kathy Dawson Books, $17.99) "Digby and Zoe are back and in more trouble than ever in this sequel to Trouble Is a Friend of Mine. Zoe is confused and hurt after not hearing from Digby for months, but she moves on to a new group of friends, a new job, and even a new boyfriend. When Digby comes back to town with a convoluted — and highly dangerous — plan to find his sister, he turns Zoe's new life upside down. Struggling to balance her new priorities, Zoe has to decide if the trouble Digby's return brings is worth it. This book is sure to delight anyone who loved the first book as well as those who are new to Digby and Zoe." —Sami Thomason, Square Books, Oxford, MS
