For Ages 9 to 12

Threads, by Ami Polonsky (Disney-Hyperion, $16.99) "Clara and her parents are mired in grief for her older sister, adopted from China, whom they lost to cancer. At the mall one day, Clara aimlessly reaches into a handbag on display only to find a note pleading for help from Yuming, a child imprisoned in a factory in China where the bag was made. Clara knows immediately that she was meant to rescue Yuming and the other children in the factory. The story, told from each child's perspective, is riveting and deeply moving. What a wonderful opportunity for American readers to get an eye-opening look at the bitter reality for some of the world's children." —Banna Rubinow, the river's end bookstore, Oswego, NY

For Teen Readers

Spindle, by E.K. Johnston (Disney-Hyperion, $18.99) "Generations ago, the Storyteller Queen saved her kingdom by driving the demon out of her husband and into a prison. But the prison is crumbling and the demon is regaining her power. This is a beautiful book about finding home when one's home is lost, the power of creation, and of love, servitude, and the intersection of the two. A true masterpiece in which real magic is found in simple choices and the bonds you create." —Rachel Bellavia, Read Between the Lynes, Woodstock, IL
