For Ages 9 to 12

Flying Lessons & Other Stories, by Ellen Oh (Ed.) (Crown Books for Young Readers, $16.99)

"This anthology, in partnership with We Need Diverse Books, features the work of favorite authors, including Kwame Alexander, Jacqueline Woodson, Matt de la Peña, Grace Lin, Walter Dean Myers, and others, all celebrating both the uniqueness and the universality of all of us. The common theme throughout these stories is that success can be achieved and hardship can be overcome. An important collection for all middle grade readers!" —Abby Fennelly, Buttonwood Books & Toys, Cohasset, MA

For Teen Readers

Life in a Fishbowl, by Len Vlahos (Bloomsbury Children's Books, $17.99)

"Jared and Deidre have two loving but very different daughters, Jackie and Megan. When Jared, a state congressman, is diagnosed with terminal brain cancer, he is panicked that his family will not be cared for financially, so he decides to auction off his life to the highest bidder. An unscrupulous reality TV producer buys the right to film—and exploit—the family, but Jackie has other plans. This story is raw, unflinching, and beautiful in the midst of heartbreak. Perfect for contemporary teen fiction readers." —Valerie Koehler, Blue Willow Bookshop, Houston, TX
