A Crack in the Sea, by H.M. Bouwman (Putnam Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "From the beginning, it is easy to become attached to brother and sister Pip and Kinchen, but A Crack in the Sea presents three stories with three sets of siblings who collide in this adventure in the Second World. Kidnappings, pirates, helpful sea monsters, and more than a little magic are all part of this tale, in which each pair experiences the special portal between worlds—a crack in the sea." —Molly Olivo, Barstons Child's Play, Washington, DC

For Teen Readers

The Diabolic, by S.J. Kincaid (Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers, $17.99) "Interstellar meets The Hunger Games meets The Terminator in The Diabolic, a fast-paced thrill ride of a novel with twists unlike any other. Nemesis is a Diabolic, a humanoid creature engineered to have one purpose in life: to defend Sidonia, the kind-hearted daughter of a powerful but heretical senator. When the power-crazed emperor calls Sidonia to court to punish her father, Nemesis goes in her place and finds herself in the most worrisome of predicaments. An exciting and addictive read!" —Kelly Morton, Joseph-Beth Booksellers, Cincinnati, OH
