Other Indie Favorites

The Futures: A Novel, by Anna Pitoniak (Lee Boudreaux Books, $26) "Julie and Evan, a young couple just out of college, move to New York looking for success and for a place to establish themselves. Their relationship is rocked in the crucible of the big city in a time of financial crisis. Pitoniak is an astute, unflinching, and sensitive observer of both the tender and terrible dynamics of young love, and she has given us a novel about coming of age in New York and in the 21st century that manages to feel both intimate and familiar. The Futures is a terrific debut from a talented author!" —Dale Zapata, The Last Bookstore, Los Angeles, CA

The Bear and the Nightingale: A Novel, by Katherine Arden (Del Rey, $27) "The Bear and the Nightingale is an enchanting mix of fairy tale, fantasy, and historical fiction set in medieval Russia. Vasya, the last daughter of Pyotr and Marina, is born on the howling winds of autumn. Different from the others in her village, she is destined to be like her grandmother and is gifted with powers by birthright. As time goes by, Vasya is tested. Caught in the conflict between the old spirits and the new religion, Vasya must do everything in her power to save her family and village. Arden's novel is the rich, mesmerizing fairy tale you've been waiting for!" —Jennifer Steele, Boswell Book Company, Milwaukee, WI

Two Days Gone: A Novel, by Randall Silvis (Sourcebooks Landmark, $15.99) "This is the perfect dead-of-winter read! Ryan DeMarco is shocked to learn that his friend Thomas Huston, an internationally bestselling author, has disappeared into the woods, leaving his slaughtered family behind in their once-serene home. How could a man who has it all—perfect career, perfect wife, perfect kids—become such a monster? This is the question DeMarco sets out to answer, all while on a wild chase to track down Huston before he freezes to death in the harsh northern Pennsylvania winter." —Maggie Henriksen, Saturn Booksellers, Gaylord, MI

For Ages 9 to 12

The Ethan I Was Before by Ali Standish (HarperCollins Children's Books, $16.99)
"The Ethan I Was Before is quietly engaging, heartfelt, and authentic. Sometimes the most meaningful books are not the ones that hit you over the head with issues and drama, but the ones that slowly unfold to tell you a personal story. Standish does just that through a unique setting and well-drawn cast of supporting characters." —
Johanna Albrecht, Flyleaf Books, Chapel Hill, NC

For Teen Readers

Allegedly, by Tiffany D. Jackson (Katherine Tegen Books, $17.99) "Nine-year-old Mary B. Addison is allegedly guilty of murdering a three-month-old child who was left under her mother's care. At the age of 16, when Mary is faced with a life-changing event, she feels that she must tell the truth about that terrible night. Desperate to do right for herself, Mary begins to talk about the relationships that hurt her and the reason she didn't speak up for herself at the time. As secrets are revealed, readers begin to see the real Mary...but who is she? A highly addictive book that held me captive until the very end." —

XO, OX: A Love Story, by Adam Rex, Scott Campbell (Illus.) (Roaring Brook Press, $17.99) "A clumsy, hapless, love-struck ox. A famous, graceful, and fabulously vain gazelle. You wouldn't think that love letters from one to the other would make for a hilarious and sweet picture book, but they do. Romance will never be the same!" —Melissa Fox, Watermark Books & Café, Wichita, KS
