For Ages 9 to 12

Nightlights, by Lorena Alvarez (Nobrow, $18.95)

"Nightlights is a stunning, richly detailed ode to the power of creativity to triumph over loneliness and self-doubt. With gorgeous illustrations that evoke the fantastic imagination of Miyazaki, Alvarez builds an enchanting story full of sylphs, school troubles, and one adorable pigtailed heroine. LOVE!" —Hannah DeCamp, Avid Bookshop, Athens, GA

For Teen Readers

The Beast Is an Animal, by Peternelle van Arsdale (Margaret K. McElderry Books, $17.99) "In a world ruled by superstition, Alys is taught to fear the forest around her village, the mysterious beast who lives within, and the soul eaters who kill by taking the souls of anyone who crosses their paths. One night, Alys is the sole witness to the destruction of her village by the soul eaters. With no adults left alive, Alys and the other children are sent to a neighboring village with strict religious laws against the beast, the forest, and anything unusual. As she grows older, Alys begins to fear she has more in common with the beast and the soul eaters than the other villagers." —Sami Thomason, Square Books, Oxford, MS
