Another Indie Favorite

Sweetbitter: A Novel, by Stephanie Danler

(Vintage, $16) "Sweetbitter has bite. Our heroine, Tess, moves from nowhere to New York, where her life is going to officially begin. Yes, she's had a childhood and been to college, but none of that counts. Nothing starts counting until she crosses the river and starts working at a restaurant downtown. While she's there, she falls in love and obsession, finds a life, and starts to find herself. The writing is sharp, and the story is fierce and electric, as if you have to read carefully or you might hurt yourself. Even still, I could not stop." —Tyler Goodson, Avid Bookshop, Athens, GA
