Another Indie Favorite

Fen: Stories, by Daisy Johnson (Graywolf Press, $16)

"This collection of stories scrambled my brain, in the best possible sense. They made me reread, wonder, turn the book upside down and shake it a bit to see what other fantastical imaginings would fall out. Girls turn into eels and men into foxes, a house is obsessed with a woman, and a bloodsucking girl gang preys on Internet dates. A few stories broke my heart, too. Johnson has a way of manifesting loneliness and loss into physical pain and malady that shock the senses. Startling, unusual, and sneakily profound, Fen is an unforgettable collection." —Stefanie Kiper Schmidt, Water Street Bookstore, Exeter, NH
