This House, Once, by Deborah Freedman (Atheneum Books for Young Readers, $17.99)

"As usual, Freedman's rendering of color, form, and light are just right for her loving, conscientious evaluation of the natural elements that collaboratively become the structure of a house. Emerging from a rich blueprint blue, the clouds become a window into the time before the house, before us. Brick by brick, we begin to understand that we not only coexist with nature, but that home is composed of both ourselves and the adventure of a life observed." —Jillene Moore, Square Books, Oxford, MS
