For Ages 9 to 12

Hamster Princess: Giant Trouble, by Ursula Vernon (Dial Books, $12.99) "Harriet is back, and she's as much fun as ever! In Ursula Vernon's fourth fairy tale twist (this time involving a very large beanstalk, a giant, and a magic harp), Harriet finds herself yet again in a larger-than-life adventure that readers won't want to put down. Smart, funny, exciting, and a bit ridiculous, this newest installment in the Hamster Princess series is sure to satisfy fans and newcomers alike." —Jennifer Oleinik, University Book Store, Seattle, WA

For Teen Readers

Grit, by Gillian French (HarperTeen, $17.99)

"Incoming high school senior Darcy has a reputation as a bad girl, but there is so much more to her. Living with her widowed mom and her good-girl older sister in the pocket of a disapproving aunt, Darcy's life is complicated. She's used to ignoring the rumors, but the secret she is keeping for her cousin Nell weighs heavily on her and threatens to blow her world apart. This coming-of-age story is full of anger, betrayal, fear, and, ultimately, courage and hope. Not a happily-ever-after ending, but one full of promise." —Ellen Richmond, Children's Book Cellar, Waterville, ME
