For Ages 4 to 8

7 Ate 9, by Tara Lazar, Ross MacDonald (Illus.) (Disney-Hyperion, $17.99)

"In a world populated by letters and numbers, private detective I is approached by a panicked 6, who reports that 7 ate 9 and he fears he will be next! The number puns are rapid-fire, and there are plenty of visual gags—when 8 learns about 7's alleged crime, she removes her belt to disguise herself as 0. But this book is not just a collection of jokes built around a concept—it has a real story with a solid conclusion. One of the wittiest picture books I've encountered in years" —Ann Childs, Odyssey Bookshop, South Hadley, MA
