Other Indie Favorites

Fierce Kingdom: A Novel, by Gin Phillips (Viking, $25) "Joan and her four-year-old son, Lincoln, are just about to conclude a day at the zoo when Joan notices an unnatural stillness and a lack of other people. She hears sounds, loud popping noises, and cannot quite determine what they might be. Then she notices the bodies. How quickly life shifts from a dream to a nightmare. She shushes Lincoln and hurries away, back into the zoo she knows so well, intent on finding a hiding spot until help arrives. This is an absolutely gripping exploration of what it is like to be hunted, to be trapped and awaiting rescue but still able to connect, with cell phone glimpses, to that other life that now seems so tenuous in the midst of real danger." —Deon Stonehouse, Sunriver Books & Music, Sunriver, OR

Sons and Soldiers: The Untold Story of the Jews Who Escaped the Nazis and Returned With the U.S. Army to Fight Hitler, by Bruce Henderson (William Morrow, $28.99) "Sons and Soldiers is the remarkable story of German-born Jews who escaped the country during Hitler's rise. After training with the U.S. military, these same men returned to fight the Nazis. Their knowledge of German culture, geography, and language made them uniquely skilled at gathering enemy intelligence, but also especially vulnerable should they be captured. Bruce Henderson has written an inspiring and gripping tale of selfless men who risked everything to defeat unspeakable evil!" —Christopher Rose, The Spirit of '76 Bookstore, Marblehead, MA
