For Ages 9 to 12

You May Already Be a Winner, by Ann Dee Ellis (Dial Books, $16.99) "Who is Olivia? She's a girl who grew up in a trailer park and whose father left for reasons she doesn't really understand. She doesn't go to school, but that's okay, because she can teach herself and her younger sister at home. Meanwhile, she fantasizes about winning the lottery, because that would solve all their problems. I really felt for Olivia and her sister, Berkeley. Olivia's voice contains maturity and frustration; her whimsical daydreams take you off track in the best ways. What a voice, and what a character." —Alison Nolan, Linden Tree Books, Los Altos, CA

For Teen Readers

Thick as Thieves, by Megan Whalen Turner

(Greenwillow Books, $17.99) "I love the Queen's Thief books and I am thrilled to go back to that world and explore the politics, intrigue, and stories in this wonderful series. This new book follows a Mede slave as he negotiates the politics of that vast empire. There are subtle touches of Rome and Greece, but the world is entirely unique. With Megan Whalen Turner's deft touch for developing her characters and the world in which they move, Thick as Thieves is thrilling as both a political and an adventure novel. Expect to be swept up into the world she has created." —Liesl Freudenstein, The Boulder Book Store, Boulder, CO
