For Ages 9 to 12

The Apprentice Witch, by James Nicol (Chicken House, $16.99) "When Arianwyn unexpectedly fails her witch qualification test, she's basically banished to a backwater town called Lull to work as an apprentice. No one expects that she'll have much to do, but there's something dark lurking in the woods around Lull and Arianwyn might be the only one who can figure out what's gone wrong. Full of lovely, familiar-feeling magic and a cast of entertaining characters, this book is a delightful read in the style of the best British fantasy." —Lillian Tschudi-Campbell, Red Balloon Bookshop, St. Paul, MN

For Teen Readers

The Epic Crush of Genie Lo, by F.C. Yee (Amulet Books, $18.99) "The Epic Crush of Genie Lo is here to fill that Buffy- or Sailor Moon-shaped hole in your life. Warm, action-packed, and absolutely the most fun you'll have reading a book this summer. Give Genie Lo a CW series!" —Allison Senecal, Old Firehouse Books, Fort Collins, CO
