Another Indie Favorite

Beast: A Novel, by Paul Kingsnorth (Graywolf Press, $16) "Beast is comprised entirely of the hallucinatory ramblings of a self-imposed who has left the modern world behind in search of communion with nature, the meaning of life, connection with a shadowy past, or maybe something more. Soon, he begins having surreal experiences in a strangely featureless and seemingly inescapable landscape and becomes obsessed with the only other living thing he can find—a large, mysterious cat roaming the moor. Written with a relentless intensity that will speed you along to the enigmatic ending, Beast traverses the realms of the mind and questions humanity's perceived place in the natural world." —Keaton Patterson, Brazos Bookstore, Houston, TX
