The Explorer by Katherine Rundell (Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers, $16.99)

"Stranded in the Amazon after a plane crash, four tenacious children band together, summoning courage and creativity to find their way back home. Readers will be transfixed as the survivors build a raft, mimic monkeys to harvest honey, discover the unique fishy-chicken flavor of tarantula, and adopt an orphaned sloth. Rundell's story of adversity and friendship is a must for readers who love survival stories like Hatchet, and anyone with an adventurous spirit!" —Sara Grochowski, McLean & Eakin Booksellers, Petoskey, MI

For Teen Readers

Mask of Shadows by Linsey Miller (Sourcebooks Fire, $17.99)

"When Sal robs an intriguing court lady, it turns out that her purse contains more than just valuables—inside is also a flier announcing auditions to be one of the queen's elite assassins. Sal signs up, entering a Hunger Games-style contest in which the lone survivor takes all. But when the intriguing lady reappears, Sal suddenly has to balance the competing demands of assassination and romance. Featuring a gender-fluid main character and a diverse cast of ruffians, former magicians, and court personalities, this is an exhilarating, violent romp of a read." —Lillian Tschudi-Campbell, The Red Balloon Bookshop, St. Paul, MN
