Another Indie Favorite

Swallowing Mercury: A Novel, by Wioletta Greg, Eliza Marciniak (Trans.) (Transit Books/Consortium, $15.95) "In Swallowing Mercury, nuanced gestures, drop-dead metaphors, and indelible observations coalesce in a series of episodes from 1980s Poland. English-speaking readers possessing no knowledge of the political climate and history of the time, fear not, for Greg's primary concern is one of universality, as many scenes take on that unmistakable relatability of childhood. Stories of high jinks, first love, familial absurdity, and death are the basis of these vignettes, while an excellent note from translator Eliza Marciniak contextualizes the book within the wider world." —John Gibbs, Green Apple Books on the Park, San Francisco, CA
