For Ages 9 to 12

Click'd by Tamara Ireland Stone (Disney-Hyperion, $16.99) "I'm so glad this book was written! Click'd is an approachable way for younger readers to start thinking about digital privacy and other potential issues surrounding technology while encouraging them to get involved with coding. I also appreciate the way friendships, mistakes, and family are portrayed." —Buffy Cummins, Second Star to the Right Books, Denver, CO

For Teen Readers

I Hate Everyone But You by Gaby Dunn, Allison Raskin (Wednesday Books, $18.99) "I Hate Everyone But You is the real-time unfolding of what it's like to move on and grow up. It is light and charming with unique characters, but still explores some of the biggest and heaviest first experiences that young adults find universal. The tough push-and-pull Ava and Gen act out with one another as they learn to balance different parts of their identities and expression feels fully realized and absolutely (unfortunately) relatable. The format feels authentic and accessible, making it a perfect light read with plenty of gravity and memorable moments." —Johanna Albrecht, Flyleaf Books, Chapel Hill, NC
