Another Indie Favorite

The Second Mrs. Hockaday: A Novel, by Susan Rivers (Algonquin Books, $15.95) "When Major Gryffth Hockaday returns home after the Civil War, he learns that his wife gave birth to a child who later died, and both events occurred under mysterious circumstances. Knowing he cannot be the father of the child, he has murder charges brought against his wife. The trial and the story unfold through letters and diary entries written by Placidia Hockaday and other family members, culminating in a shocking truth. Inspired by actual events, the characters and story that Rivers has created are truly memorable. The Second Mrs. Hockaday is a unique and fascinating read." —Sherri Gallentine, Vroman's Bookstore, Pasadena, CA
