For Ages 9 to 12

The Explorer, by Katherine Rundell (Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers, $16.99)

"Stranded in the Amazon after a plane crash, four tenacious children band together, summoning courage and creativity to find their way back home. Readers will be transfixed as the survivors build a raft, mimic monkeys to harvest honey, discover the unique fishy-chicken flavor of tarantula, and adopt an orphaned sloth. Rundell's story of adversity and friendship is a must for readers who love survival stories like Hatchet, and anyone with an adventurous spirit!"

—Sara Grochowski, McLean & Eakin Booksellers, Petoskey, MI

For Teen Readers

I Hate Everyone But You, by Gaby Dunn, Allison Raskin (Wednesday Books, $18.99)

"I Hate Everyone But You is the real-time unfolding of what it's like to move on and grow up. It is light and charming with unique characters, but still explores some of the biggest and heaviest first experiences that young adults find universal. The tough push-and-pull Ava and Gen act out with one another as they learn to balance different parts of their identities and expression feels fully realized and absolutely (unfortunately) relatable. The format feels authentic and accessible, making it a perfect light read with plenty of gravity and memorable moments." —Johanna Albrecht, Flyleaf Books, Chapel Hill, NC
