For Ages 9 to 12

The Player King, by Avi (Atheneum Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "In this fictionalized account of British history, a young orphan working as a scullion in a pub is taken in by a mysterious friar. After he is taught the manners and skills necessary to act the part of a prince, he challenges the King of England to the throne. Avi's colorful vocabulary and descriptions of medieval England and Ireland combine with an intriguing plot to paint a vivid picture of 15th-century life." —Liza Bernard, Norwich Bookstore, Norwich, VT

For Teen Readers

The Chaos of Standing Still, by Jessica Brody (Simon Pulse, $17.99) "Set entirely in the Denver International Airport, The Chaos of Standing Still is an intricate, moving, funny, and thought-provoking story of coping with loss and allowing love to bloom. Underneath it all, conspiracy theories abound about the real-life and very weird paintings and sculptures at the airport. Brody is already well-established as a skilled writer of young adult and middle grade books, but this one is a real standout. Great for high school-age teens and many adults." —Len Vlahos, Tattered Cover Book Store, Denver, CO
