Other Indie Favorites

The City of Brass: A Novel, by S.A. Chakrabarty (Harper Voyager, $25.99) "S.A. Chakrabarty introduces a fantasy set in the Middle East that thrusts us into the magical world of Daevabad. The City of Brass follows, in parallel, Nahri, a con artist and naturally gifted healer, and Ali, prince of Daevabad and fiercely trained soldier. Nahri and Ali find themselves learning new lessons on how to survive changing environments and difficult challenges, while trying to figure out the complexities of their lives. The City of Brass is a wonderfully written, mystical adventure that keeps you guessing about what will happen next." —Barry Nelipowitz, Literati Bookstore, Ann Arbor, MI

A Hundred Small Lessons: A Novel, by Ashley Hay (Atria Books, $26) "This a beautifully written, important, quiet gem of a novel that takes hold of you and wends its way into your psyche. It tells the story of two families who live in the same house at different times in Brisbane, plumbing the relationships between mothers and children, husbands and wives. Marriage and motherhood are explored in-depth within the context of the story's rich character development. A Hundred Small Lessons is a welcome addition to the genre of thoughtful novels with much wisdom to offer the reader. I highly recommend this novel, whose life lessons will continue to live with me for years to come." —Sarajane Giddings, Blue Door Books, Cedarhurst, NY
