Penguins Don't Wear Sweaters! by Marikka Tamura, Daniel Rieley (Illus.) (Nancy Paulsen Books, $16.99) "This is the true story about how people around the world knitted sweaters for penguins after an oil spill. While the movement created awareness of oil spills and the havoc they cause, the sweaters were not the best way to help these penguins. The simple, repetitive text mixed with the fun, graphic illustrations and the overall message of environmental awareness makes this a great read for young children."
