For Ages 9 to 12

Winterhouse, by Ben Guterson, Chloe Bristol (Illus.) (Henry Holt and Co. Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "Do you like curling up with a cup of cocoa and a puzzle on a snowy day? Winterhouse is for you. Warm and captivating, this story of a brainy orphan and a mysterious hotel is full of delightful word games, a deliciously wintery setting, and appealingly odd characters. A trip to an enchanting hotel full of secrets sends our hero, Elizabeth, on an unexpected journey to find out who she really is. Heartfelt and magical, this is a must-read for fans of Book Scavenger or the Mr. Lemoncello's Library series." —Moira Koskey, Green Bean Books, Portland, OR

For Teen Readers

Everless, by Sara Holland (HarperTeen, $17.99) "Welcome to a world where you can sell your blood and your time, where the rich stay young and the poor die young. Desperate to save her father, Jules returns to the one place where she is most in danger: Everless, home of the Gerlings. Holland has created complex characters and powerful women and done some impressive world-building, and each mystery that unfolds only increases the danger for Jules. As Jules discovers the truth behind the lies on which her past is built, she begins to see the world around her in a new light. A thrilling start to a new series!" —Kate Towery, The Fountain Bookstore, Richmond, VA
