Other Indie Favorites

In Every Moment We Are Still Alive: A Novel, by Tom Malmquist (Melville House, $25.99)
"Malmquist's debut autobiographical novel opens at top speed as we meet Tom in the hospital and learn that his pregnant girlfriend's life is in danger. With a velocity unlike any hospital drama, Malmquist captures the chill of the medical staff and his forced navigation of a clinical, emotionless world. His writing style is unlike any I've recently experienced; his ear for dialogue makes you feel present and privileged to be part of the conversation. I have not experienced such skillful, unrelenting examination by a writer tackling life-and-death circumstances and what it means to live in a changed world as I have with this book." —Janine de Boisblanc, Orinda Books, Orinda, CA

The Mitford Murders: A Mystery by Jessica Fellowes (Minotaur Books, $25.99)
"I am not the main mystery reader in my household, but I loved The Mitford Murders. With perfect timing for all things Great Britain, Jessica Fellowes definitely deserves her uncle Julian's blessing to place the real-life Mitfords in a fictional Downton Abbey-like setting. It absolutely kept me guessing and satisfied all my English cravings. Well, at least until the royal wedding in May!" —Sue Roegge, Chapter2Books, Hudson, WI
