For Ages 9 to 12

Until Tomorrow, Mr. Marsworth, by Sheila O'Connor (G.P. Putnam's Sons Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "During the summer of 1968, a profound relationship develops between Mr. Marsworth, an elderly recluse (and draft dodger), and Reenie Kelly, the young girl who delivers his newspaper. Reenie is trying to save her older brother from being drafted, and through written correspondence seeks Mr. Marsworth's help. All of the characters in this story are well-drawn, distinct, and memorable, plus there are very provocative, discussion-worthy themes." —Mark Adam, Mrs. Nelson's Book Fair Company, Pomona, CA

For Teen Readers

Heart of Iron, by Ashley Poston (Balzer + Bray, $17.99) "The perfect way to sum up this action-packed, heart-wrenching, and humorous book that came out of Ashley Poston's dark and dastardly brain is Anastasia meets Firefly. From the first page, there is action and adventure, with plenty of laughs, gasps, and sighs mixed in. By the end of the book, you will want—and need—more. Seriously." —Renee Becher, Old Firehouse Books, Fort Collins, CO
