For Ages 9 to 12

Granted, by John David Anderson (Walden Pond Press, $16.99) "Ophelia Delphinium Fidgets is no ordinary fairy—she is a Granter, one of the select few whose job it is to venture beyond the boundaries of the Haven and grant the wishes of unsuspecting humans every day. Readers learn about the importance of our wishes, as well as the difficulties fairies face in getting our wishes granted. Hopefully my wish for a second volume of adventures with Ophelia will come to pass. Highly recommended for all 'wishers' ages seven and up." —Candace Moreno, San Marino Toy & Book Shop, San Marino, CA

For Teen Readers

The Wicked Deep, by Shea Ernshaw (Simon Pulse, $17.99) "Centuries ago, the Swan sisters were drowned for witchcraft. Now, for a few weeks each year, they claim the bodies of three girls and use them to draw men into the harbor to drown. For those weeks, tourists flood the town and the locals dare each other to go near the water. They call it The Swan Season. The Wicked Deep is haunting, sad, and satisfying. The sisters' anger is so thoroughly understandable, it is easy to see how they would want to lure men into the harbor. This is the perfect book for Practical Magic fans or anyone looking for a crisp, immersive read." —Amy Brabenec, Brookline Booksmith, Brookline, MA
