For Ages 4 to 8

Alma and How She Got Her Name, by Juana Martinez-Neal (Candlewick Press, $15.99)

"Names can be a powerful reminder of our family history, as shown in this beautiful story about a little girl with a very long name. Alma complains about her name (didn't we all as kids?) but changes her mind as her father explains which relative each of her names honors. Whether you have a long, short, common, or unique name, this book will make you think about your name and smile. A treasure." —Cecilia Cackley, East City Bookshop, Washington, D.C.
