For Ages 9 to 12

Heartseeker, by Melinda Beatty (G.P. Putnam's Sons Books for Young Readers, $16.99) "An excellent beginning to a story kids will become immersed in! The protagonist, Only Fallow, cannot just see when people are lying, she can't tell a lie herself without it being incredibly painful. When news of Only's abilities reaches the king, he commands her to work at his side to parse out traitors and corruption at court. Heartseeker's every chapter is action-packed and the stage is set for a blockbuster second book. I cannot wait!" —Nichole Cousins, White Birch Books, North Conway, NH

For Teen Readers

Anger Is a Gift: A Novel, by Mark Oshiro (Tor Teen, $17.99) "Anger Is a Gift is a feat worthy of all the awards and accolades it is sure to receive. Mark Oshiro has written a fully intersectional book with characters ranging across gender, sexuality, disability, and mental health and covering topics such as systemic racism, disability access, police brutality, anxiety, first love, and more. With fast-paced and compulsively readable writing, Anger Is a Gift is a much-needed addition to the literary canon. Fans of The Hate U Give, Dear Martin, and All American Boys will enjoy this novel." —Shauna Sinyard, Park Road Books, Charlotte, NC
