For Ages 9 to 12

Nightbooks, by J.A. White (Katherine Tegen Books, $16.99) "Unlike his 'normal' sports-loving brother, Alex has always loved monsters and scary stories. His favorite movie? Night of the Living Dead. His favorite hobby? Writing spooky stories. When things at school push him to make a change—to act more 'normal'—things take a turn toward the unexpected. Alex finds himself in the middle of a story, and a spooky one at that. Can he escape with the help of some new friends, or will he run out of stories first? Dark magic, fairy tales, and witches swirl together in a spellbinding new mystery from J.A. White." —Clarissa Murphy, Wellesley Books, Wellesley, MA

For Teen Readers

The Smoke Thieves, by Sally Green (Viking Books for Young Readers, $18.99) "The Smoke Thieves is a brilliant opening salvo in a new trilogy. Featuring five very different characters whose stories weave together in unexpected ways, this book is a rapid-fire read full of pulse-pounding action. The world-building feels effortless as Sally Green creates a land filled with brutal kings, demons, and political machinations. I was not ready to leave this world at the end of the first book and will be waiting very impatiently for the sequel!" —Carrie Deming, The Dog Eared Book, Palmyra, NY
