For Ages 9 to 12
Finding Langston, by Lesa Cline-Ransome (Holiday House, $16.99) "In this story of the Great Migration of 1946, 11-year-old Langston misses his mother, who has passed away; his grandmother, who was left behind; and his father, who has to work long hours. As Langston faces poverty and bullying in Chicago, he takes refuge in the library and discovers books and companionship, something that is life-affirming for both him and his father. Finding Langston is exactly the profound book of renewal we need right now." —Alice Hutchinson, Byrd's Books, Bethel, CT
